

HUNTER of the DAMNED

A walk through Hell

KEVIN J. LAWS

Retired Special Agent
Homeland Security Investigations

Homeland Security Investigations Special Agent (retired) Kevin J. Laws investigated Internet crimes against children, bringing down some of the worst offenders imaginable. Working online undercover for over a decade, starting in the earliest years of the Internet, he protected children from monsters. These are his stories. Buckle up, it's going to be a wild ride!

“

“Kevin spent a career conducting and teaching child exploitation undercover chat. He is a walking book of true stories”

Jim Cole,
Homeland Security Investigations

“

“The Hunter of the Damned has a duplicity of the intimacy of a good friend telling stories around the fire with the unsettling truth that lies within every reach of our society. The book is raw and heartfelt, it will take a piece of your soul, but it will leave you with a true understanding of child exploitation. A must for every parent.”

Tara Waln,
Podcast: Keeping it Hidden

Now available online and at book stores near you.
ISBN: 978-1-68515-925-2

For additional information please send me an email at knsteaching@gmail.com

For a personalized copy please visit my website: www.kandsteaching.com

*Please allow 6-8 weeks for shipping
(I'm a one person business)*